The shares shall be issued in installments. Preferred shares may be issued within the number of aforementioned shares.

Article 6 If there is profit in any given fiscal year, the Company shall set aside no less than 0.1% as the remuneration in stock or cash for employees, out of which 30%-50% shall be distributed to non-executive employees, and no more than 0.15% as the remuneration for Directors under the resolution of the Meeting of the Board of Directors and shall be reported in the shareholders' meeting. Nevertheless, accumulated losses shall be offset in advance.

In case of any earnings earned in any given fiscal year being reported from the Company's final annual accounting, the Company shall appropriate or reverse a special reserve firstly after taxes, losses and legal reserves have been paid, made up and set aside respectively. Secondly, a preferred share dividend shall be distributed at 14% of the par value, and a common share bonus shall be distributed at no more than 14% of the par value. In case the account still remains any distributable earnings, additional bonuses shall be distributed according to the percentage of shares held by each shareholder of preferred and common shares.

When necessary, the Company may, upon a resolution by a shareholders' meeting, set aside special reserved earnings surplus or retained earnings first after distribution of dividends for preferred shares. In case of no earnings in a given year or in the event that the earnings are insufficient to cover the distribution of dividends for preferred shares, the outstanding dividends for distributable preferred shares shall accrue and be made up firstly when there are earnings in any subsequent year.

When distributing the annual earnings, the Company may first consider the financial status and other operational factors of the Company, and may allocate partial or all of the reserves in accordance with laws and regulations.

The Company's business life cycle is in the stage of steady growth. Pursuant to the distribution of the dividends and shareholders' bonuses provided in the preceding paragraph, cash distributed shall be no less than 75% and shares distributed no more than 25%.

The priority and proportions for distributing the remaining company properties for preferred shares shall be the same as those for common shares.

Shareholders of preferred shares shall have no right to vote for members of the Boards of Directors, and their other rights and obligations shall be the same as those of shareholders of common shares.

Preferred shares issued by the Company may be redeemable.

Shareholders of preferred shares may request a conversion of preferred shares into common shares.

Article 7 Except for shares not physically printed, shares of the Company shall be numbered and more than three members of the Board of Directors shall affix their names or seals thereto. Shares shall then be issued upon certification by competent authorities or issuance registration authorities approved thereby.

For shares of the Company not physically printed, the central securities depository business agencies shall be contacted to record them.

Article 8 Except for shares of the Company not physically printed, all shares shall be nominal stocks. The true names of shareholders shall be indicated on the shares. Where the government or a juristic person is a shareholder, the addresses and true names of the government, the juristic person, or the representative thereof shall be recorded on the shareholder roster of the Company. In the event that a share shall be jointly owned by two or more shareholders, one of the persons shall be elected as a representative.

Article 9 Anything in relation to transfer/assignment, loss or destruction of share certificates shall be handled in accordance with the Company Act and the Criteria for Handling Stock Affairs of Public Company promulgated by the Authority concerned.

Article 10 The Company may charge the necessary fees and costs for replacement or re-issue of share certificates due to detachment, stain/damage, loss or destruction, or conversion of preferred shares into common shares.

Article 11 The shareholder of the Company shall submit specimens of signature or registered seal (chop) to the Company for the purpose of transferring/assigning share certificates and exercising shareholder's right specified in Part 3, Chapter 5 of the Company Act.

Article 12 In case the registered seal (chop) as recorded in the Company is lost, destroyed or replaced by another seal style for other reasons, the Shareholder shall take a new seal for replacing the original one in accordance with the Criteria for Handling Stock Affairs of Public Company promulgated by the Authority concerned.

Article 13 The register of share transfer shall not be made within sixty (60) days prior to a shareholders' regular meeting or within thirty (30) days prior to a shareholders' extraordinary meeting or within five (5) days prior to the date fixed for allocating dividends, bonuses or other benefits.

CHAPTER THREE SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

Article 14 The Company shall hold the following two types of shareholders' meetings:

1. A regular shareholders' meeting.
2. An extraordinary shareholders' meeting.

A regular shareholders' meeting shall be convened by the Board of Directors in accordance with law within six months after the end of each fiscal year, and an extraordinary shareholders' meeting shall be held in accordance with law when necessary.

Article 15 The procedure for convening shareholders' meeting is in accordance with the Company Act, Securities and Exchange Law, and other regulations concerned.

Article 16 Unless otherwise provided by the Company Act and other laws or this Articles of Incorporation, a shareholders' meeting shall only be held when shareholders representing a majority of total number of outstanding shares are present. A resolution at such a meeting shall be adopted by a majority vote of shareholders present, who represent more than one-half of the total number of voting shares.

Article 17 In the event that the shareholders present at a shareholders' meeting fall short of representing the required number of shares in the preceding paragraph, provided, however, that where shareholders representing more than one-third of the total number of outstanding shares are present, upon consent of shareholders representing more than one-half of the voting shares present, a tentative resolution may be adopted. This tentative resolution may be sent to the shareholders in writing at the latest addresses of the shareholders on the shareholders' directory. Another shareholders' meeting shall be convened within one month. In the event that at the reconvened shareholders' meeting, shareholders representing more than one-third of the total number of outstanding shares are again present, upon consent of shareholders representing more than half of the voting shares present, an official resolution may be adopted.

The tentative resolution in the preceding paragraph shall not apply to any special item for resolution as provided in the Company Act and other laws or this Articles of Incorporation.

Article 18 Each shareholder of the Company shall have one vote per share, unless otherwise the vote is subject to restrictions or the voting power does not exist pursuant to item 3 of Article 157, Paragraph 2 of Article 179 of the Company Act and any other related laws and regulations.

Article 19 In case a shareholder is unable to attend the shareholders' meeting, he may delegate an agent to attend and to exercise all rights at the meeting for him by submitting a letter of consignor signed or sealed by the shareholder himself. A proxy needs not to be a shareholder of the Company.

Article 20 Chairman of the Board shall preside at the shareholders' meeting. When Chairman of the Board is on leave or absent, he may designate a Director to act on his behalf, and if no proxy is designated, one Director shall be elected from among the Directors to preside the meeting. When a shareholders' meeting is convened by any person who is not a member of Board of Directors but has the convening right, he/she shall act as the chairman of that meeting; provided, however, that if there are two or more persons having the convening right, the chairman of the meeting shall be elected from among themselves.

Article 21 The resolution of the shareholders' meeting shall be recorded in the minutes, and such minutes which are kept in the record of the Company shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting and shall be sent, together with attendance list and letter of consignor, to the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER FOUR DIRECTORS

Article 22 The Company shall have nine to fifteen Directors, who shall be nominated as candidates and elected by shareholders from a list of candidates.

When Directors are elected at a shareholders' meeting, the number of votes exercisable per share shall be the same as the number of Directors to be elected. Such votes may be cast collectively to elect one person or allocated to elect several persons, and the person(s) who receive(s) ballots representing a plurality of votes shall be elected as Directors.

The number of Independent Directors among the number of Directors to be elected in each term in accordance with the paragraph 1 of this article shall be no less than three and no less than one-fifth of the number of persons to be elected

The professional qualifications, restriction on the number of shares held and simultaneous positions served, the determination of independence, the methods of nomination, and other matters to be observed by the Independent Directors shall be governed by applicable provisions of the securities-related laws.

Independent Directors and non-Independent Directors shall be separately nominated and elected together, and the number of Directors elected shall be calculated separately.

Article 23 Directors shall be elected for a term of three years and may be reappointed upon reelection.

Article 24 The Board of Directors shall elect its Chairman of the Board from among the Directors by a majority of the Directors in a meeting attended by over two-third of all Directors. The Chairman of the Board shall externally represent the Company to handle all related business.

Article 25 Except for the first meeting of a newly elected Board of Directors, which shall be convened by the Director who has won votes representing the largest number of the voting power at a shareholders' meeting, meetings of the Board of Directors shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be convened once every quarter. However, the frequency of convening the meetings may increase when necessary.

When convening a Board meeting, members of the Board of Directors shall be notified of the date, location, agenda of the meeting and sufficient meeting materials seven days in advance. In the event of an emergency, such a meeting may be convened at any time.

The notice set forth in the preceding paragraph may be effected by means of writing or electronic transmission. In the event of an emergency, such a meeting may be notified by any other appropriate means. Any member of the Board of Directors may declare a waiver of the notice in writing.

Article 26 The Chairman of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. In case of his absence, Chairman of the Board may designate a Director to act on his behalf; if no Director is designated, the Directors may designate one from among themselves.

Article 27 Unless otherwise provided by the Company Act and other laws, a meeting of the Board of Directors shall only be held when a majority of incumbent Directors present and a resolution shall be adopted upon consents by a majority of the Directors present.

Article 28 Unless otherwise provided by securities-related laws, a Director may authorize another Director to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors by a letter of consignor, and to exercise his right to vote with respect to all matters submitted to the meeting, provided, however, each Director may not act as proxy for more than one other director.

Article 29 The Board of Directors shall perform its duties in compliance with the statutes, the Article of Incorporation, and the resolution of the shareholders' meeting.
